Reports of Boards

BIBLE BOARD

Brethren:

The Bible continues to be the oldest and newest book. Its messages vitalized by the Holy Spirit are health and life to the individual and nation. Obedience to its direction insures the largest measure of life. Heathen lands, priest-ridden countries and millions in money-mad and pleasure-crazed America are perishing for this Gospel of life offered by the inerrant word of God. To American Senates, equivocating and shirking peace treaties the Book effectually says, "You are your brother's keeper and the strong must protect the weak;" that a policy of national isolation is suicide. To a world embittered by the hate of war, the Bible gives the lesson of brotherhood and love. In every need and question of the human heart the Bible is God's answer showing us the way. (Happy is that people whose God is the Lord, and are lead in the inerrant way of His Word.)

The American Bible Society is the call of God to put his Word in the Western world and has issued and distributed in the one hundred four years of its history nearly 140,000,000 Bibles and portions. During the past year it distributed more than 6,000,000 volumes. During the World War, the American Bible Society distributed more than six and two-thirds millions of Testaments among the belligerent forces of all nations. In this Bible distribution our Southwestern Agency, managed by Rev. J. J. Morgan is doing splendid service, having distributed during the present year 68,617 volumes in forty different languages. This Agency embraces our state together with Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana. The work of distribution is much hindered for want of funds and and the prejudice against our Bible by the Roman Catholic population who oppose the sale and distribution of the Bible by our Protestant colporteurs. For this reason eighty per cent of the foreign speaking homes in Southern Louisiana are without a copy of God's Word.

Our Arkansas Depository, Rev. D. H. Colquett, Agent, is growing in usefulness and popularity. It ministers faithfully to prisons and hospitals and to the homes of the poor; and meets an essential want in the Protestant churches and population of our state. During the present year our Depository through Brother Colquette will sell and distribute 25,000 volumes and portions. This work is fundamental as it reaches the bed-rock of our Arkansas need. Our Depository sorely needs a home of its own near a mailing station at Little Rock, and our Bible man, Brother Colquette, deserves the heartiest co-operation of every pastor in carrying forward the work in our Conference.

Your Bible Committee offer the following resolutions:

First. That our churches and pastors observe the Mayflower Universal Bible Sunday, November 28, 1920, or some other convenient Sunday, with appropriate service.

Second. That our pastors and other friends in our Conference endeavor to get life members of the American Bible Society; membership fee being $50.00, which increases the fund for general benevolent work by the Society. Each member has a life benefit of a yearly gift of Bibles.

Third. That we pastors give our hearty co-operation in the fundamental work of putting the Word of God into the hands of the people.

Fourth. The chief financial resource of the Society for its world-wide soul-saving (life-blessing) work comes from its patronizing churches. Its Southern Methodist Church gives three per cent of its general benevolent funds; therefore, we recommend that we pay in full.

R. A. McCLINTOCK, Chairman.
JOHN TAYLOR, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

We are informed that the effort made last year to put the Arkansas Methodist in every Methodist Home resulted in securing more than three thousand subscriptions. The present circulation is now above 13,000, or approximately 13,500.

There are yet many homes into which the paper does not go, and our slogan, "The Arkansas Methodist in Every Methodist Home" should yet be accomplished. Especially is this so now, as much of our Centenary Subscriptions are yet to be collected, and we have now just before us the great Educational Drive.

Our people must know what we are doing, and why we are doing it, and this can not well be understood without the reading of our Conference organ. Methodist people must be brought to fully understand the importance of the church, and to know the importance of a conference wide and church wide co-operation.

Our people must be more than informed, they must also be inspired to enter heartily into the plans of the church.

To this end our religious publications are essential, our Conference organ an absolute necessity.

We recommend that a vigorous campaign be made during the months of January, Feb., and March to put the Methodist in every home. The paper is ably edited, and is more than worth the price, we might say, for the editorials alone.

It is recommended that the same general oversight concerning advertising matter be given as heretofore. We would not ask the discontinuing of advertising matter, since the high cost of publication really demand such matter as may be unquestioned.

We also recommend to this conference the following:

1. That Dr. A. C. Millar be reappointed editor.
2. That the General Manager be authorized to follow the same plan as last year.

3. That an assessment of two thousand dollars be made on the conference, to protect the interest of the paper through the present crisis of high cost of paper.

4. Recommend the election of Geo. Thornburgh, James Thomas and E. R. Steel as commissioners.

No more splendid publications are to be found than the Christian Advocate, Missionary Voice, and Methodist Review.

These publications should have a far wider circulation, and we believe this can be accomplished easily by our pastors urging our people to read these publications.

We ask that each pastor call attention to these papers, and make special effort to increase their circulation.

Also, to look diligently after the matter of supplying our people with all needed literature. Attention should be called to the books, and pamphlets furnished by our publishing house, and our young people supplied with good books and tracts; such as are calculated to increase both their spirituality and loyalty.

J. A. BIGGS, Chairman.

T. P. CLARK, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:
Dear Brethren:

We desire to call the attention of the Conference to the fact that each year the work of the Church Extension Board in your Conference becomes more important and more imperative, as the needs of churches and parsonages increase. We urge our people to read the literature of the General Board which comes to each charge free of cost. The assessment of the Conference year 1921 is the same as last year, $7,590.00. On the foregoing assessment we regret to be forced to report a decrease in the collection of $310.25 over last year, and yet we had last year only eleven applications from churches and parsonages and this year we have twenty-two. We have been asked for $7,100.00 and only had in our hands $3,010.00 to appropriate.

Brethren, please help your Board so we can help you more largely. We were very much pleased to have with us this year Rev. S. H. C. Burgin, our newly elected General Secretary, whose large vision of Church Extension and his eminent fitness as a business man seems to us to be providential at this time that he should be in charge of this high and important work of the Church.

We call again the attention of our preachers to keep a vigilant outlook for any persons who might be induced to make gifts or loans to the Church Extension Board. Our present Loan Fund is pitifully small, being only $640.00, and we hope that during the coming Conference year through your assistance we may be able to secure several thousand dollars to supplement this small sum.

We are planning to have a representative of our Board at every District Conference this next year and we urge the Presiding Elders to allow them a few minutes in each District Conference to present this important matter.

BOARD OF EDUCATION REPORT NO. 1

I. Whereas, the General Conference recommended that there be two Church-wide movements in the present quadrennium, one for missions and one for Christian Education.

II. And, whereas, our Conference educational institutions are in pressing need of additional funds in order that they not only may move forward with the progress and development of the Church but (in truth even) in order to maintain their present efficiency under changing conditions, and whereas we recognize the fact that our educational institutions have by order of the General Conference been kept for the past two years from presenting their needs to the Conference and connection,

III. And, inasmuch as the tragic events of the past few years have taught us that education without Christ is a mockery, and, therefore, that if America is to be true to its mission, education must be Christian,

IV. And, whereas, our denomination is now short eight hundred preachers and is calling for hundreds of missionaries and trained workers now available, and inasmuch as we have recognized our responsibility for recruiting and training young men and women for this work if our Church is to grow and serve,

V. And, inasmuch as we feel, therefore, our responsibility jointly with the other Conferences to focus our attention this year upon all the processes of Christian Education in the home, the Church, and the school,

BE IT RESOLVED:

First. That this Conference co-operate most heartily in the plans of the Educational Commission's five-fold objective in carrying out the instructions of the General Conference.

Second. That we will take all proper steps to fix the attention of all our people upon the fundamental place of Christian Education in the life and mission of our Church and that to this end we urge pastors to preach and teach, and laymen to lend their influence in every possible way.

Third. That we call upon our people for their prayers in behalf of the presidents and faculties and trustees of our schools, for our young people in attendance upon them, praying especially that the right young men and young women may be led to give their lives as preachers, missionaries and trained workers, and that these schools may supplement the work of home and church in leading the young people of this generation to the acknowledgment of Christ as their Master in whatever work they may choose.

Fourth. That we appoint a Conference Educational Committee to be made as follows: Dr. James Thomas, Mr. C. E. Haynes, Rev. E. R. Steel, Mr. W. W. Taylor, Rev. J. L. Cannon, Mr. L. C. Holman, Judge J. E. Calloway, for the purpose of co-operating with the Connectional Educational Commission and for putting in operation the necessary plans for securing the support of all our churches for this Movement.

Fifth. That we assume as the quota for this Conference the sum of $1,103,000.00. and authorize the Conference Educational Commission, with the help of the Presiding Elders, and in co-operation with the General Conference Commission, to divide this amount equitably among the Churches of the Conference.

Sixth. That the matter of selecting the Secretary of Education for the Conference be committed to the Director-General, Dr. Reynolds, and the Commission herein provided for.

Seventh. That we call upon the churches to co-operate in a manner worthy of the impelling need of our Christian Education Program in arousing every member to an appreciation of his or her responsibility and in giving fullest support in the collections to be taken next spring.

Eighth. That the Second Sunday in December, 1920, be fixed as the date on which the Presiding Elders and Pastors of the Conference shall present the Christian Education Movement to the Pastoral charges.

STONEWALL ANDERSON, Chairman.
S. R. TWITTY, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION REPORT NO. 2

Your Board of Education has given careful consideration to the reports and requests referred to us, from the General Board of Education, from the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training, from Southern Methodist University, and from our three Colleges. All our institutions of learning are full to overflowing. They are embarrassed by their very success. The increased cost of operating them without corresponding increase in income is creating for them an exceedingly perplexing problem.

Never in her history has the Church had greater educational opportunities than now. By every token God is calling His Church to gird herself for the largest and finest educational task she has ever done, for she cannot play her God-given part in the reconstruction of a broken and suffering world without greatly strengthening her educational institutions. The educational opportunities lying before us cannot be met without spending millions upon our schools, colleges and universities.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

First. That Dr. A. C. Millar be added to the Commission on Religious Education for the Little Rock Conference, and that the Joint Commission on Religious Education for the two Conferences in Arkansas be authorized to work out a feasible plan for the establishment of a Wesley Foundation at the State University and to report said plan to the next session of the Conference for consideration and adoption, and that we hereby request the North Arkansas Conference to take like action at its ensuing session.

Second. That the following assessments for Education be made for the ensuing year: Henderson-Brown College, $4000.00; Galloway College, $4000.00; Hendrix College, $4000.00; Ministerial Education, $1,200.00; Summer School of Theology, $1,000.00; Incidental Expense of Board of Education, $200.00; Total, $14,400.00.

Third. That Dr. James Thomas, Mr. Adam Trieschmann, be elected Trustees of Hendrix College to succeed themselves.

That Rev. R. W. McKay be elected to succeed J. I. Porter, resigned, and that Judge Frank Smith be elected to succeed himself, as trustees of Galloway College.

That R. W. Huie, Jr., Mr. A. Trieschmann, Mr. W. E. Barkman, Mr. E. D. Irvine and Rev. J. L. Cannon be elected Trustees of Henderson-Brown College to succeed themselves.

Fourth. That Dr. C. J. Greene be appointed Professor and Acting-President of Hendrix College; Dr. J. M. Workman, President of Henderson-Brown College, R. C. Rhodes, Professor in Emory University; and Mr. Thornburgh Workman, Instructor in Southern Methodist University.

That R. E. Fawcett, W. C. Martin, Walter C. Scott, E. C. Rule, R. P. James and Paul C. Stephenson, be appointed students in Southern Methodist University, and that Wesley J. Clark and H. R. Nabors be appointed students in Hendrix College, that A. L. Miller be appointed student in Boston University.

Fifth. That the following appropriations be made: $500.00 to Wesley Clark; that loans also be appropriated to the following: H. R. Nabors, E. C. Rule, C. D. Cade, and that J. P. Horton be recommended to General Board of Education for loan of $100.00.

STONEWALL ANDERSON, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT NO. 2

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:
Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We, your Epworth League Board, submit the following report:

The work of the young people this year is very gratifying and promises better things for the coming year. The statistics show that we now have a membership of 4598, a net gained of 370 over last year. Many new Leagues have been organized, failing ones revived, and the way made open for organizing others.

There has been a decided increase in the interest manifested in the Junior and Intermediate Leagues. Our people see the wisdom of training the children in the Junior League, promoting them into the Intermediate, and later into the Senior League.

Your Board is very much pleased with the type of young people composing the League Conference Cabinet. Each office is filled with a devout, consecrated young person, whose heart is in the work. The District Secretaries have pushed out the boundaries of the League until every District is now well organized and can be depended upon by the conference officers.

Last year the League Conference was converted into an Assembly of six days and held at Henderson-Brown College, Arkadelphia. Nearly two-hundred of as fine a type of young people as can be found anywhere attended this assembly. A new era in Epworth League work in this conference was opened. The quality of work done was very highly commended by the representatives of the Central Office. Plans are now being made for a greater Assembly next summer.

The Epworth League conference is paying $1,000.00 this year toward the support of Rev. J. M. Hamilton, our pastor at Mt. Ida. Bro. Hamilton is doing a splendid work there, and laying the foundation for greater results.

We had before us Rev. Ralph E. Nollner of the Central Office, Mr. Neill Hart our League Conference president. These brethren brought us inspiration as they mentioned the plans for greater work.

The League Conference unanimously voted to put a Field Secretary into the field to do practically the same work for the Epworth League as Bro. Clem Baker is doing for the Sunday School, and ask the hearty co-operation of this conference.

In view of the pressing needs of organizing unorganized territory, and strengthening the present forces, and gathering into our Churches and Schools our young people for a better equipment for the largest possible service, we recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That Epworth League Anniversary Day be observed in every Church where there is an Epworth League, and a Young People's Service in every Church where there is no Chapter organization, where it is at all practicable.

2. That we endeavor to increase the membership of the League to ten thousand or more by the first of next July, laying stress upon the rural districts.

3. That the Epworth League Conference Officers be given all the assistance possible in the projection of their work.

4. That Miss Hope Tabor be elected Editor of the League page in the Arkansas Methodist.

S. T. BAUGH, President.

W. T. MENARD, Secretary.

BOARD OF FIANACE

We, your Conference Board of Finance beg leave to submit the following report:

We rejoice to report a slight increase of our funds over last year and urge that greater effort be made for a larger increase the ensuing year.

We recommend that all cases of emergencies be immediately referred to the Conference Board of Finance for consideration before any appeal for funds be made or collection taken.

We recommend careful consideration of the Methodist Benevolent Association and encourage the membership therein as a protection of those dependent upon us.

This recommendation applies more particularly to the younger men of the Conference, and as a Conference Board of Finance we pledge our co-operation in this work.

We again call attention to our need of $300,000.00 endowment and ask the Conference to recognize this need and to join in the movement to provide the same.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We rejoice in the achievements of the year and thank God for his special grace and goodness as we enter into the spirit of the world-wide movement of making a new church and a new world. The pastors and people have generally been loyal to our great program.

The Centenary

It must be evident to all that we face nothing less than a new Church and a new world. It is but expressing a truism when we say that the whole world presents new conditions and is entering upon a new era, the final goal of which no prophet can forecast. It is equally true that the Christian Church has been shocked out of its traditional routine and lifted to a higher vision and a more daring conception of its mission and responsibility. To ignore these facts is to miss the significance of the hour and squander its opportunity. The vision of the Church by its spirit and results is longed for.

The Centenary is an outstanding factor in the statement just made. It interprets and forecasts the new awakening and broader vision of the Church by its spirit and results. Grateful as we must be for that which has been accomplished, we would be false to the true meaning if we should allow ourselves to be lulled into satisfaction and fail of its higher purpose and possibilities by even a temporary slackening of our energies. The Centenary should be to us not a foreground of fulfilled ideals, but a background against which to come to a new self-realization in this world's greatest hour of need.

Three results of immediate significance have come to us out of the Centenary which confirms the above view:

1. The enlargement of our existing mission fields and institutions, the extension of fields and the multiplication of missionaries, calling for a vastly increased continuous expenditure and enlarging the responsibilities of the home administration.

2. The opening up of a new mission in three countries of Europe, with the prospect of a fourth at the opportune moment, which is hereafter to be one of our most commanding and extensive missionary territories, is an heritage which invites a forward-looking and vigorous program for our Church.

3. Home Missions under the new conditions revealed by recent surveys becomes almost a new discovery. It is evident to the most superficial student that the scale on which we have been conducting our Home Mission operations will not answer for the present day demands. Our new city mission policies, to which your attention will be called more definitely by our representative, will demand a vastly enlarged outlay and a better articulated administration.

All this emphasizes the importance of a full collection of the Centenary pledges. The slogan adopted by the Centenary Commission of "No Shrinkage but an Increase" is not a meaningless one. Every day gives emphasis to its wisdom. We cannot too strongly urge the importance of these collections being made promptly and thoroughly, not only from a financial standpoint but also in order to preserve the confidence of the Church in its own ability to do things and for the maintenance of a good morale for the future. The undertakings of the future will depend upon the financial outcome of the Centenary. The missionary forces are all deeply interested in the success of the Educational Campaign. It is earnestly desired that nothing we do shall hinder, but everything we do shall help to make that campaign a success. We believe profoundly that a prompt collection of Centenary pledges will go far to encourage liberal contributions to the Educational Campaign. We can think of no better method than set forth in the Standard Plan and we would urge its use in every church.

One of the outstanding agencies for collecting pledges, cultivating the spirit of liberality and making permanent the financial awakening of the Church is through our Bureau of Specials. Through this agency an aggregate of more than eight million dollars in specials has already been assigned for the five years. It is very desirable that the pledge of every church and Sunday School, as well as every considerable pledge which has been made in the Centenary should be assigned as special.

Nothing has been more heartening during these strenuous months of the Centenary Campaign than the well nigh universal co-operation of all the forces of our great Church. Perhaps never in our history has there been such unity in our ranks, and the results for which we are now rendering thanksgiving are the product of our joint labor and self-sacrifice. Our laymen and women, as well as our Pastors and Presiding Elders, threw themselves into the work with untiring energy and zeal. We cannot believe this is mere temporary enthusiasm, but rather that our people stand ready to be led into a perpetually enlarging endeavor, and that the whole Church is sensitive to a call for world service. In this sense, we have a new Church to lead into this new world situation. We must vindicate our leadership by responding to the challenge with a courage and a breadth of vision that match the unparalleled conditions.

Our retiring Secretary of Missions, Rev. R. W. McKay, has done a great service not only in directing the whole movement including the successful drive, but in the matter of specials has tied our churches onto more than $400,000.00 in specials. The work of Mr. E. D. Irvine, who succeeded Brother McKay, has been active and efficient. We have elected him for the ensuing year and we beg our brethren to co-operate with him in every way.

We recommend, therefore, that our Pastors and church leaders continue with great earnestness.

First. Our League of Intercession and Family Altars.

Second. That we instruct our people in the doctrines of stewardship of life and property.

Third. That we co-operate with the Evangelistic Committee in revival work and in the teaching work of our Conference.

Fourth. We have appointed an Evangelistic Committee, to-wit: J. D. Hammons, Paul Q. Rorie, Frank Musser, E. R. Steel, J. H. Cummins. Ex-Officio, S. T. Poe, E. D. Irvine, C. N. Baker, T. L. Bond, R. W. McKay and G. W. Pardee.

REPORT OF ORPHANAGE BOARD

This has been the most satisfactory year in our history. We received seventeen children and placed twenty, leaving in the Home Sept. 30, 1920, twenty-three. We could have placed all the children we have if we had not been careful in the consideration of applications. We rejected a great many. We did not refuse admission of any child coming within our rule.

During the existence of the Home we have placed three hundred seventy-six children.

Brother Thornburgh received special gifts in money during the year to the amount of $2200.9, which makes a total of $42,484.09 he has collected. This does not include the amounts contributed by the Conference. We are glad to say that the receipts from the Conferences were better than for several years past. Heretofore, we have been borrowing funds for four months of the year, but this year we only borrowed for two months. For the year beginning Oct. 1, 1920, we will have to borrow for only one month. We could, by deferring payment of the regular monthly bills, tide over without borrowing, but we prefer not to do this as we have never postponed the payment of a bill in the history of the Institution.

Our Orphanage is perhaps the most economically run institution in the State. We only have four paid employees, to-wit: Matron at $50.00 per month, Assistant Matron at $30.00, Stenographer and Bookkeeper at $25.00 and cook at $15.00. Making a total of fourteen hundred and forty dollars a year for all. Most Orphanages pay more than that for a Superintendent only.

Respectfully submitted,
B. F. SCOTT, Secretary.

We had before us Dr. E. B. Chappell, our General Secretary and Editor of Sunday School Literature, and appreciated his services both with the Board and as our special speaker before the Conference on our Anniversary.

Your statistics show that we now have 405 Sunday Schools with a total enrollment of 40,803, Seventy-Four Teacher-Training Classes and one hundred forty-nine Wesley Bible Classes. This is a gain of four schools, 6,053 enrollment, ten Training Classes and 11 Bible Classes over last year. The total amount of money raised in Sunday Schools this year is $61,869.00, which lacks only $8,000.00 equaling the total amount raised by the whole Conference for Benevolences. Our Conference reports 2,949 additions on profession of faith this year, 2,288 of whom came from the Sunday School.

Our Conference has made an especially good record on Sunday School Day offerings, the total amount raised this year being $4,540.00. The banner District on Sunday School Day offerings is the Prescott District, and hence the banner is awarded to Rev. J. A. Hendrson, Presiding Elder and his very efficient secretary, Mr. C. H. Goodlett. This District reported an offering from every church within its bounds. The Little Rock District, Dr. James Thomas, Presiding Elder, the Arkadelphia District, Rev. R. W. McKay, Presiding Elder, and the Camden District, Rev. J. A. Sage, Presiding Elder, each reached its goal of $500.00 or more and hence deserve special mention. The following are the banner charges for their Districts:

Arkadelphia District, Arkadelphia, W. R. Richardson, P. C.
 Camden District, El Dorado, S. F. Goddard, P. C.
 Little Rock District, First Church, Dr. P. C. Fletcher, P. C.
 Monticello District, Tillar Ct., R. H. Cannon, P. C.
 Pine Bluff District, Stuttgart, B. F. Musser, P. C.
 Prescott District, Delight Ct., Jesse Galloway, P. C.
 Texarkana District, Foreman, Z. D. Lindsay, P. C.

We have been greatly helped in our work by the space allotted us in the Arkansas Methodist and hereby extend our thanks to Dr. A. C. Millar, its wonderful editor.

We wish to express our appreciation for the undivided support of all Presiding Elders, pastors, and superintendents whose servants we are and without whose support our work would be impossible.

The Forward Movement for Christian Education led by the Board of Education is but another phase of our work and hence we pledge to this movement our very best efforts in whatsoever way we can assist in bringing it to a successful culmination.

Our program for the ensuing year comprehends a series of circuit institutes and training schools that will reach every charge in the Conference, the ultimate aim being to enlarge our Sunday School enrollment and provide a trained leadership for same.

We have enlarged our field force by employing Mr. F. T. Fowler who will devote his time to the development of rural Sunday School work. We have re-elected Rev. Clem Baker as our field Secretary and respectfully ask for his appointment to this position.

We have asked the Commission on Finance to continue our appropriation of $3,000.00 for the support of our work for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

C. E. HAYES, Chairman.

P. C. FLETCHER, Secretary.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

Temperance.

We thank God for the consummation on Jan. 16, 1920, of that most remarkable victory when prohibition became effective as a part of the Constitution of this country, ratified by forty-five of the forty-eight States. It is a new declaration of independence as far reaching as that of 1776.

And we note with satisfaction the growing tendency of the Courts to recognize the liquor business as an outlaw and an enemy of the home and happiness. But while this is true the traffic is engaged in a conspiracy to thwart the will of the people. This conspiracy challenges the friends of civic righteousness to a final contest.

The most determined assaults ever made on Prohibition will undoubtedly be made during the next few years. The liquor interests have small hopes of being able to ever repeal the Eighteenth Amendment. However, if they can succeed in electing a "wet" Congress, they can change the Prohibition enforcement code so that it will render the Prohibition Amendment ineffective. This they will seek to do.

A determined effort will be made to change the definition of intoxicating liquor, so as to permit the sale of beverages containing a high per cent of alcohol, instead of limiting the alcoholic content to one-half of 1 per cent, as is the case at present. A bill is at present before Congress to permit the sale of beer and ale, containing 3 per cent alcohol, which would be six times the present strength, and of wine containing 9 per cent alcohol, which would be 18 times the alcoholic content permitted at present. The recent election did not hurt our cause, but a great danger confronts us at present in the tendency to apathy on the part of many friends of Prohibition having been adopted, there is no further need for action or agitation along that line.

Prohibition is now a settled policy of our government. It is no longer a question of whether any person is for or against it; it is solely a question of upholding the Constitution and no citizen of this country can be a law abiding American and not favor the enforcement of the Prohibition law.

The greatest menace to the American people today is a general tendency to lawlessness. Anarchy, Bolshevism, I. W. W.-ism and similar movements, are nothing more or less than treason and should be dealt with as such. But they are the natural and legitimate outgrowth of a tendency to disregard law. A nation-wide campaign of law enforcement must be conducted in an effort to teach obedience to ALL laws.

The chief obstacle to building up Prohibition sentiment in this country has been the fact that such large numbers of people were permitted to continue living here without being required to understand our ways or speak our language. Foreign customs have been set up in America, and old country ideals have been help up. The education of the youth, as well as the older people, from this time on, must be in the language spoken by Americans, and every person claiming a residence in this land, and expecting the protection of our flag should be an American, native or naturalized, speak the American language and obey American laws.

The liquor interests, quick to seize upon an opportunity, are rapidly forcing themselves into many foreign countries. What is expected to be the biggest brewery in the world is now being constructed in China by American brewers, and largely with American money. Extensive propaganda is being conducted everywhere. A typical example of this was seen only a short time ago, when an American missionary in a great Chinese city witnessed a parade of hundreds of Chinese, led by a band, and carrying at the head of the procession a banner on which was inscribed, "American beer will cure the Chinese opium habit." But we rejoice that a world League against Alcoholism has recently been founded.

This world League will be the efficient ally of every mission board. Our own Church through its Commission has had a very active part in this great movement and the chairman of our Commission, Bishop Cannon, has been elected chairman of the Executive Committee of the World League. He has recently visited Great Britain and several countries on the continent of Europe and found from personal conference with leading statesmen that the adoption of prohibition by the people of the United States has made a profound impression in the highest government circles of Europe.

The world is looking to America for moral leadership, and it must not be disappointed. The duty of the hour is clear. We are spending millions of dollars a year in missionary endeavor, to see much of our money and effort dissipated by the liquor interests. This should not be tolerated. The hands of all the nations are outstretched to us in supplication. The heartaches of the centuries, the sorrows and wounds of womanhood, and the hopelessness of orphaned childhood, together with outraged public morals everywhere constitute the most ringing challenge to the moral forces of this republic.

There is no place on the program of our Lord's Kingdom for those who traffic in the vices of men or women. We face a new day, a new world, a world and race soon to be redeemed, we believe, from the curse of the liquor traffic, a saloonless and sober world.

GEO. THORNBURGH, Chairman.

SOCIAL SERVICE

Never in the world's history has the country been so disturbed by the struggle between capital and labor as in the past few years. Social and economic conditions are changing and the church of Jesus Christ never had a higher call, a weightier responsibility or greater opportunity than now to press upon humanity the teachings of Jesus, the King of kings.

The Church cannot line up with parties or persons. Ours must be a ministry of reconciliation. Our own denomination stands for equal rights and complete justice for all men in all stations of life; for a living wage as a minimum in every industry and for the highest wage that each industry can afford; for a release from employment one day in seven; for the principle of conciliation and arbitration; for the protection of the family by a single standard of purity; for the abolition of child labor and the development of every child by proper education and recreation.

We stand for these not as political but as moral requirements.

We should stand more than ever for suitable provision for the old age of workers both in the industrial pursuits and in religious callings. It will be a new and happy condition when the aged are honored as they deserve, when the forgotten man is remembered, when the worthy industrial superannuate has a fair life pension, and when the worn out preacher is comfortably supported and gratefully remembered. Then we can pray with greater fervency for the Master to send more laborers into the harvest.

Resolved that we renew our approval of and allegiance to the Anti-Saloon League and recommend the election of Geo. Thornburgh, A. C. Millar, W. M. Hayes, J. H. Class and B. A. Few and J. S. Utley as our representatives on the Arkansas Anti-Saloon League Board.

Respectfully, submitted,
GEO. THORNBURGH, Chairman.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Resolutions of the Little Rock Conference as to Sabbath observance. Adopted by the Little Rock Conference of the M. E. Church, South, in session at Camden, November, 1920.

Believing that the keeping of the Sabbath as God commands is necessary for the safety, progress and happiness of our people, we heartily deplore the general desecration of our Sabbath day. It is a certain sign of impending destruction.

One of the chief corner stones of our national greatness was the fixed habit of our forefathers to strictly observe the Sabbath. If we depart from that habit curses will overtake us; yea, are overtaking us. Keeping the Sabbath will help all and hurt none. Money making through Sunday work will curse those who do it, as it has cursed others in all the ages past.

All working men by whomsoever employed, as well as all others should have and keep the Sabbath. Working seven days in the week will destroy the religious life of man or nation. Every man should have Sunday with his home, his wife and children, his Sunday School and Church.

For these reasons we urge all members, citizens and public officials, to do their best to stop all Sunday labor; all Sunday trains, state and inter-state; to stop all post offices and all mails on Sunday; stop the transportation of Sunday newspapers; to stop all Sunday theatres, picture shows, baseball and like games; to stop all trade and traffic on Sunday, including all gasoline stores, soft drink and soda water stores and drug stores, excepting always instances of charity and necessity, as taking the ox out of the ditch, and supplying needed medicine and relief to the sick and suffering, overtaken by distress that could not be provided against before Sunday.

We urge the passage by Congress of a National Sunday law for observance in the District of Columbia and in all inter-state commerce; and to stop all Sunday mails, postoffices, railroad trains, and newspapers; and we endorse for that purpose the law proposed by our sister (Tennessee) Annual Conference through their committee (Noah W. Cooper, W. R. Webb and F. B. Chappell) as it now appears

And we favor State laws of like character.

We recommend that a committee composed of Geo. Thonburgh, Stonewall Anderson and R. P. Wilson be appointed by our Bishop to co-operate with the said Tennessee Conference committee and others for like purposes, in urging the enactment by Congress and by our State Legislature of these proposed laws; and to do their utmost to build up public sentiment that will require the enactment and enforcement of these laws.

I, C. J. Greene, Secretary of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the resolutions adopted by the said Conference November 19th, 1920.

C. J. GREENE, Secretary.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We are endeavoring to keep before our Church the object of this Board of Trustees. We have never doubted the ultimate success of this plan. If the younger and more active members of our Conference would keep this Board before our people of means, the Board of Trustees would receive gifts, and bequests from time to time. We attach copy of the Constitution, and beg that it be published in the Minutes as a part of this report.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAY ACTIVITIES

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:
Dear Fathers, Brothers and Sisters:

We your Committee on Lay Activities, beg leave to report as follows:

The Centenary and Evangelistic Campaigns have proven beyond question the value of the work of the laymen in the ongoing of the Kingdom of God.

We are of the opinion that the great problems now confronting the Church can and will be more easily solved through the combined efforts of the ministry and laymen, and we therefore make the following recommendation:

That the laymen use their best efforts to secure the erection of the family altar in every Methodist home where same does not now exist.

That the laymen assist in every way possible in the collection of the Centenary pledges, and also assist to bring to pass the success of the Educational Campaign.

That every layman be urged to render to God such portion of his time and his substance as rightfully belongs to Him.

That this Annual Conference present a memorial to the General Conference asking that body to more clearly explain its policy on the question of Lay Activities and requesting an amendment to the Discipline clearly defining the work of the layment as a whole.

We recommend the selection of Sam T. Poe as Conference Lay Leader for the ensuing year.

Fraternally submitted,

SAM T. POE, Chairman.

G. W. PARDEE, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:
Dear Fathers, Brothers and Sisters:

We, your Committee on Evangelism, beg to submit the following report:

In our opinion, the Evangelistic Campaigns conducted during the past year, have been of lasting benefit to the Church, the foundation for greater achievement having been fairly established thereby.

The Church as a whole has been greatly strengthened, and many successful revivals have resulted from these Campaigns; Preachers, Laymen and Churches have been strengthened.

We therefore beg to submit the following recommendations for your approval:

That G. W. Pardee be continued as Conference Campaign Director.

That in so far as possible, a simultaneous Pre-Easter Evangelistic Campaign be conducted, the survey for same to begin at least six weeks before Easter, the Campaign to terminate on Easter Sunday.

That other Evangelistic Campaigns be conducted throughout the Conference at other intervals, and at such times as will best suit the conditions in the various charges, and that a full report of same be furnished the Conference Director by the Presiding Elders of the various Districts, as soon after September 30th, 1921, as possible.

That some duly qualified Evangelist be secured to preach a series of Evangelistic sermons during the next annual session of this Conference.

Fraternally submitted,
R. W. McKAY, Secretary.
J. D. HAMMONS, Chairman.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

We, your committee, have examined the District Conference Journals, and beg to submit the following report:

Little Rock District Journal is a model of neatness with the exception of two cross out words.

Monticello is correctly and neatly kept with the exception of two erasures and one insertion.

Camden is type-written with three pen insertions.

Arkadelphia is very well kept. The Secretary, however, left two blank pages in the middle of the minutes.

Texarkana has no marginal index, and several erasures.

Pine Bluff is very well kept.

Taking them as a whole, they are carefully kept.

The Prescott Journal was not before us.

W. T. MENARD, Chairman.
G. W. PARDEE, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING A WESTERN ASSEMBLY

Whereas certain men from the Southwest, who conferred last summer at Lake Junaluska, recommended that steps be taken to establish a Summer Assembly west of the Mississippi River; therefore,

Be It Resolved that we encourage the plan, and we hereby appoint A. C. Millar and C. E. Hayes to represent the Little Rock Conference in conferring with representatives of other Conferences for the purpose of selecting a location and establishing an Assembly; provided that the Conference is not involved in any financial obligation.

J. M. WORKMAN.
GEO. THORNBURGH.

RESOLUTIONS REPRESENTATIVE CHURCH

Whereas, the Little Rock Conference did assume an obligation toward the Representative Church in Washington City, and $1593 of that obligation is unpaid,

Resolved, that we hereby instruct our Conference Board of Church Extension to pay that amount in three annual instalments, beginning with the Conference of 1921.

CLEM BAKER.

HENDERSON-BROWN COLLEGE

Whereas, the Little Rock Conference at its last session appointed the Presiding Elders a commission to negotiate with the North Arkansas Conference for a transfer of one-half interest in Henderson-Brown College and as the Conference cannot now know what the action of the North Arkansas Conference will be; therefore,

Be it Resolved:

First: That should they accept the proposition of the Commission, that they be requested to elect seven trustees and that the presiding elders be empowered to confirm the selection of seven trustees nominated by the present board of trustees of Henderson-Brown College.

Second: That the present Board of trustees be authorized to make a transfer of Henderson-Brown College to the new Board should it be elected.

R. W. McKAY,
R. M. HOLLAND.

RESOLUTION: STATING THE RELATION OF THE LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE TO THE STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

WHEREAS, the Sunday School Board of the Little Rock Conference, has before it a gigantic task to fully meet the great demands upon it, occasioned by the multiform needs of the field we occupy as a church, and whereas our constantly enlarging program calls for a great increase in finances,

AND, whereas the pitifully small amount of $2,200.00 per year received from the Conference Assessment renders it necessary for the Conference Sunday School Board to depend on volunteer offerings from generous friends of our own Methodist work, therefore be it

Resolved, that all of our pastors and laymen bear in mind that it is their first duty and obligation to heartily and generously support the work of their own conference Sunday School Board, and our Field Secretary, the Rev. Clem Baker, and his assistant, Mr. T. F. Fowler, even to the exclusion of the International Sunday School work, there being no official relation between our Conference and the International Association.

While we rejoice in the good work of our International friends we cannot afford to support their work in our territory to the neglect or detriment of our own.

We regret that too often our influential ministers and laymen lend their influence and help to others than the Sunday School workers of their own church, thus unintentionally diverting the attention and co-operation of our Methodist people.

Respectfully submitted,

CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION

I, Edwin D. Mouzon, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, do hereby certify that on November the 21st, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty, in the town of Camden, Arkansas, following the morning sermon in the Methodist Church, I did ordain the following deacons:

John Cope, and Charles Boyd-Davis;

Also at the same time and place (being assisted by elders present) I did ordain the following elders:

Earl Clifton Rule, and William Roy Jordan.

EDWIN D. MOUZON.

Camden, Ark., Nov. 21, 1920.

Know all men by this writing that I, J. T. Turner, an ordained elder in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, do certify and declare that I have lost my credentials, and in lieu thereof, I am making this declaration and hereby surrender to Rev. W. C. Watson, Presiding Elder of the Pine Bluff District, Little Rock Conference, in which my work is located, my credentials, and at the same time withdraw my membership from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and consent for same to be published.

REFORM SCHOOL FOR COLORED YOUTH

Resolved by the Little Rock Conference in session at Camden, Arkansas:

That we recommend to the next General Assembly of our State that they look into the practicability of establishing a reform school for the colored youth of our State. If the funds for such an institution are not now available, that they devise means to raise funds sufficient for such building and equipment; and that idle boys and girls and other youthful law-breakers, who furnish a large menace to the future welfare of our country, may be confined under good moral keepers and instructors; be given the rudiments of an English Education and taught the useful trades and industries. Such an institution could be made self-supporting, but if not quite so, it would be a sound economic project for our state in saving expense of criminal prosecution, and in the rescue of human character.

THANKS

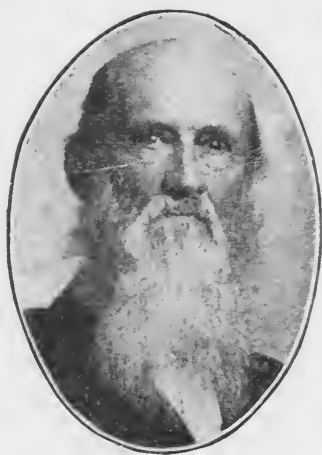

Whereas, the churches and people of Camden have provided the most ample and generous entertainment, convenience and facilities for the conference as a whole and for each and every member making the occasion one of unalloyed pleasure and social and spiritual profit, therefore, be it resolved that we hereby express our full and hearty appreciation to the Methodist Church and pastor for the use of the church and all of its equipment and to all who received us into their hospitable homes, and to the other churches for their pulpits and courtesies, and we earnestly pray that God's richest blessings may rest upon and abide with all these our hosts and benefactors.

MEMOIRS

REV. JAMES E. CALDWELL

The subject of this memoir was one of the pioneers of the M. E. Church, South, in Arkansas. He took an active part in laying the foundation of a great moral and religious movement in what was then called the "Wild West." He was intimately associated with Hunter, Winfield, Ratcliffe and many other heroes whose works abide. He was a native of Saline county, Arkansas, was born September 23, 1833, and January 2, 1920, passed to his final home.. He was the last survivor of a strong body of preachers who composed the Little Rock Conference of 1857, at which time the writer was received as a transfer from the Memphis Conference. Brother Caldwell was converted under the preaching of Rev. A. R. Winfield in 1851. While a student in LaGrange College he felt divinely called to the office of the ministry and was not disobedient to the heavenly calling. In 1852 he was licensed to preach and, feeling the urge of a divine call, he made haste to enter the active work of the ministry. In 1853 he made application for admission on trial to the Arkansas Conference, and was admitted. He was married to Miss Martha A. Grubbs, whose father was a Methodist preacher, in 1854. This proved to be a very happy union. She was in every sense a true helpmate. She is still living in age and feebleness extreme, but full of faith and the Holy Ghost. To them nine children were born, two sons and seven daughters. Five of the daughters survive their father and have families of their own. They are following the footsteps of their sainted father and are looking forward to a happy family reunion in the sweet bye and bye.

Brother Caldwell was endowed with a fine intellect, but with a frail body. The essential qualifications for the work of the itinerancy in those pioneer days was a strong body, a sound mind, a genuine religious experience, a divine call to preach, and a heroic self-sacrificing spirit. All of these he possessed in full measure except the strong body. As a young itinerant he gave promise of a brilliant and successful career, but was soon handicapped by lack of a robust body. The country was rough, the circuits were large, and travel altogether on horseback. Every preacher needed a good horse to swim the creeks, wade the swamps, and to pull through the mud and bog of new roads and by-ways. The circuit rider was appreciated by the people and toward him their hospitality abounded. He was given the best to eat that the country afforded, and slept in the best bed in the home. But the home was generally a log cabin with one or more rooms. Sometimes one room served as a kitchen, dining room, living room and sleeping room. Church buildings were few and rude. If they were heated at all it was generally by a large open fireplace in one end of the building and the board pulpit in the other end with an open window at the preacher's back. Often a private house was the meeting place of the community, and in warm weather the brush arbor was used for holding revival meetings. Those were days of truly great revivals. Sinners were deeply convicted and soundly converted. The people got religion and knew when and where and how they got it.

Such were some of the conditions under which James Caldwell, refined, cultured and delicate, began his itinerant life. But he was a man of heroic mold and none of those things moved him. Neither did he count his life dear unto him that he might win Christ and finish his course with joy.

I became intimately associated with Brother Caldwell in 1859, at which time I was junior preacher on the Princeton Circuit, H. R. Withers being preacher in charge. He was then a superannuate living in the bounds of this circuit. He was deeply pious, thoroughly conscientious and knew nothing but Christ and Him crucified. In his personal experience and his ministry he was of the type of the fathers of Methodism in this country. He believed with all his heart the doctrines of Methodism and preached the same with a consuming zeal. He was a lover of the Bible and made it his chief study, and urged the people to study it. He was scrupulously attentive to all the work of a pastor. In the sixties his hearing began to fail and in the course of a few years he found himself disqualified for the work of a pastor on account of his deafness. He was then appointed agent of the American Bible Society, which position he held and in which he proved quite efficient for four years. He was finally superannuated, in which relation he remained for the last forty years of his life. But he did not cease to work until he became entirely deaf and almost completely blind. Even then he continued to attend public worship. He said to me on one occasion, "I enjoy seeing you preach." In the course of fifty-two years he missed the annual roll call of his Conference only twice. Although almost cut off from communication with his fellowmen and the world generally, he never lost interest in the Church. He lived in touch with God. Like Enoch of old, he "walked with God." The vision of faith did not grow dim, nor the voice of the spirit indistinct. When he could no longer take part in the great battle of the militant host, he stood like a beacon light pointing the way to victory and to glory.

"How happy are the saints above
Who once went sorrowing here;
But now they taste unmingled love
And joy without a tear."

—C. O. STEEL.

REV. THOMAS D. SCOTT

It is with a sad heart that we chronicle the death of Rev. Thomas D. Scott. A good and useful man has fallen. He served his generation as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. He was competent, zealous, and faithful to every trust committed to him. He still lives in the heart and memory of thousands.

He was born of rugged, heroic parents, brought up in a truly religious home and lived among faithful God-fearing people. The home of his childhood was one of the most religious in all Arkansas. This community has given many noble sons to the church. He was converted while a youth and his whole life was spent in the church. He was born November 28th, 1861, and grew to manhood near Benton. In 1885 he was licensed to preach and in December 1885 was admitted into the Little Rock Conference at Arkadelphia along with eight others. Only three of the class are now living. He served every kind of pastorate we have. On circuits he proved his worth, and in stations he showed powers of organization and leadership.

He came to his own on a district. He was a presiding elder to the manner born. He knew men and how to work with them. He could do team work with any reasonable man. He was patient with the young and ignorant preachers, a counsellor with the strong and effective, and tender and loving to those who were growing old. The laymen could get close to him, they knew him, loved him and trusted him. He could hold no malice and never sought revenge. Twice a member of the General Conference he gave good account of himself as a safe and sound law-maker for his church. He was always on our most important conference boards, usually on the Board of Mission. While his education was limited to the high school he was greatly interested in all of our colleges. For many years he was on the Board of Trust of all of them. He was entirely unselfish in his devotion to them. It seemed providential that he should be living in Arkadelphia when Henderson-Brown was destroyed by fire. At once he took a leading part in rebuilding and is largely responsible for the splendid buildings which replaced those burned. He also took the leading part as counsellor and guide in liquidating the debt. He had no degree from a college but he did accumulate a large, well selected library and by hard study became a master of many subjects. His reading was wide and he was versed in all the subjects that he believed would be helpful in the interpretation of the word of God. His calling was to preach. He would know Christ and him crucified. All of his studies were to prepare him for the best interpretation of Christ to men. As a preacher he sought always to give a correct exposition of the word of God. He was a student of the one Book and his sermons were based on the Scriptures. He made no pretence at oratory. He was plain, simple and always preached in language that children and common people could understand. While having no trick of the modern evangelist, yet thousands came to Christ under his ministry, making no pretence to learning, yet the best trained minds were inspired by his lofty thought. He made no claim to sainthood yet the pure in heart were fed, refreshed and built up in their most holy faith. He had no special gifts as a builder and yet he planned and built churches and parsonages. His greatest visible monument is the beautiful temple at Hope, Arkansas. In the social circle he was a perfect gentleman and a delightful guest in any company. His wit was fine and his humor exquisite. No man among us could tell a joke to better effect. No man loved home more than he. He gave every attention to wife or child and was ready to the limit of his means to comply with every legitimate wish. His garden was his recreation and his yard a thing of beauty. You could easily trace his pastorates by the flowers around the churches. He was twice married. First to Sue Compton. To them was born one son, Walter C. Scott, now an honored member of this Conference. His second marriage was to Mary Wilson. To them were born three children. One went away in childhood. Thomas D. Scott, Jr., and Elizabeth live. For thirty-five years he had an unbroken ministry. First in 1885-6-7-8, Atlanta Circuit, 1889-90-2, Hazen, Little Rock, Asbury, 1893-4-5; Monticello District 1896-99; Pine Bluff District 1900-3; Hope 1904-7; Prescott 1908; Texarkana, First Church, 1909; Arkadelphia District 1910-14; Arkadelphia Station, 1915; Hope, 1916-18; Arkadelphia District, 1919-1920. Soon after Conference last year he found his health failing and asked to be released from work. He died in great peace in his home in Arkadelphia, July 13, 1920. Thus lived and passed away, one of our truest and most heroic men. Rest dear friend. We have labored together for these thirty-five years. At some future time we shall meet and talk over our work days again.

—R. W. McKAY.

REV. H. TOWNSEND

Rev. H. Townsend was born in North Carolina January 25th, 1836, and moved to Montgomery, Miss., in early childhood.

He married Miss Mary Elizabeth Beeler on December 11, 1861. Ten children were born to this union, seven of which still survive.

He was licensed to preach sixty-one years ago in Mississippi.

He came to Arkansas about 1870 and has been a member of the Little Rock Conference since that time.

He was stricken with paralysis on Thursday morning, October 14th, 1920, at the Methodist church in Benton, Arkansas while talking to Brother Hilliard. Dr. Phillips was called and with the help of W. M. Steed, he was removed to his daughter's, Mrs. Stevens, with whom he was living. He never regained consciousness and passed away on Friday morning, October 15th, 1920. His body was laid to rest in Rosemont Cemetery Sunday afternoon, October 17. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Hilliard. Besides his family, he leaves a large number of friends to mourn his departure.

RICHARD SPANN

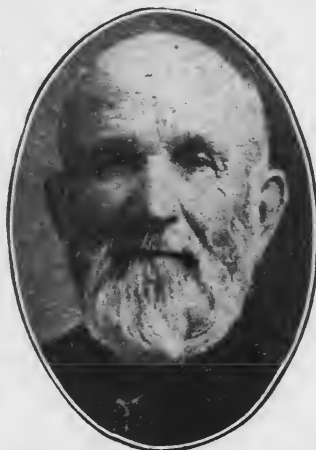

Richard Spann was born in Mississippi sixty or more years ago, but moved to Arkansas when he was quite young. He represented Bradley county in the last General Assembly of our State, and so great was the regard for him, that had he lived, and his county returned him to the next General Assembly, he very probably would have been elected speaker of that body. A prominent lady employee of the Legislature said to the writer, "No man had a greater influence in that body than Richard Spann." He contributed to higher ideals of God in our legislative body. He willed thousands of dollars worth of real estate to the Board of Trustees, Little Rock Conference, but his will was destroyed accidentally by fire before death, and the church lost the property.

He never married, but he was the impersonation of chivalry, having a high regard for womanhood. And in turn women highly respected him. There was in his bearing and manner, a simplicity all his own. He was licensed to preach in our Conference about thirty-three years ago and was duly ordained deacon and elder. Though he had never joined the Conference, he had been, in name and in fact, one among us for many years. He has been a regular attendant of our annual Conference; his face has been a familiar one, and is now much missed, as he is seen among us no more. He was a good preacher and won many friends to his Lord, and had many friends. He was a man of God and made moral foot-prints upon "the sands of time" that all the coming years can not erase. In the last analysis goodness is the only greatness and those only whom God has made good, and by his grace kept good until the end, can look with glad hearts into the records of the Judgment Day.

Brother Spann served as a supply pastor in various charges in our Conference, at Eudora, Watson, Bayou Meter, Palestine, Jersey, Maumelle. He wrought well, and by the help of his brethren in the ministry, had many conversions to the Lord. The excellent church building at Vick in the Monticello district was built during his ministry there. Thus his marks of righteousness abound and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance. At the last session of our Conference, he was sent to Redfield Circuit, where he was highly pleased to go. He served an appreciative people for nearly three months. Upon making a visit to Vick his former home in Bradley county, the last of February, he took sick at the home of John Hardiss, who with his good wife and family cared for him until he went to sleep in Christ Saturday evening, March 7th, 1920. We expect to meet our ascended Brother at the Roll Call of the Sky.

REV. H. D. McKINNON

Rev. Henry D. McKinnon, son of Neil McKinnon and Frances Mitchell McKinnon, was born near Thomasville, Ga., December 15, 1835, and died at San Marcus, Texas, December 13, 1919. Those places and dates mark the earthly limits of a life that was exceptional in length, faithfulness and influence.

He felt called to preach while he was studying law at Winchester, Tenn., and responding to this call, he joined the Tennessee Conference in October, 1857. After three years in this conference, he was transferred to the Ouachita Conference, where he held membership the rest of his life. He was one year a missionary to a Missouri brigade of Confederate soldiers, 33 years a pastor, 16 years a presiding leader, and the last 12 years he was superannuated. Sixty-two years he was an itinerant Methodist preacher, and an even half century he was in the active ranks.

In September, 1866, he married Miss Sue A. Ward, whose father and grandfather were preachers. A woman of deep piety and unusual ability and devotion, she came to be depended upon for a substantial contribution to the cause of Christianity, as was her husband. They had seven children, two of whom, Mrs. F. C. Floyd of Locksburg, Ark., and Mrs. R. B. McSwain of San Angelo, Texas, have gone to the better land. They are survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. H. Morton, and Misses Susie and Henry McKinnon of San Marcus, Texas; two sons, Neil McKinnon of Ozan, Ark., and Rev. John J. McKinnon of Mill Creek, West, Va., and twelve grandchildren.

Bro. McKinnon's value as a Methodist preacher was due, in no small degree, to the singleness of his purpose to know and to do the will of God, and the great common sense and persistence that he used in carrying out his purpose. He had a keen eye for the fundamentals of character and of his calling; he was not deflected by anybody's whimsical notion of what he ought to be or do, he was not swerved by any difficulty. His distinction lay in the regularity and uniformity with which he put the full volume and force of his manhood into the ordinary work of a preacher. And yet in a few characteristics of his life and work he stood so far above the average that some record of them ought to be made in the interest of preserving something of the greatness of the spirit.

He was a big man, physically, mentally, and spiritually. He was as far above pettiness, narrowness, and meanness as a man well could be. He was a strong preacher. He knew how to put more into a short sermon than most men put into a long one, and he always quit when he got through. As pastor he was trusted for his goodness and wisdom, and as administrator he was farsighted and aggressive. At Warren, Ark., he built one of the first parsonages in the Conference, and helped to organize the first Woman's Missionary Society in the Southern Methodist Church.

His unusual fitness for the presiding eldership has long been recognized. While he was always brotherly in his consideration of preachers, he was an unusually good judge of men and of their fitness for certain pastorates. When in the light of the Spirit, whose guidance he always sought, and of his best judgment, he saw what ought to be done, he did it without fear or favor. If criticism or complaint followed his effort to do good, he carried the responsibility without rancor or defense. As a friend and counsellor of young preachers his services were very great. Several of the bishops and other connectional officers said that he was the best presiding elder in Southern Methodism, and some of those in his own Conference who knew him best concur in the estimate.

He was absolutely loyal to the spirit of the itinerancy. One who knew him well says, "He never, under any circumstances, meddled with his appointment. He left that all-important matter with God and the duly appointed authorities of the church, and when the appointment was made he accepted it in the spirit of a loyal soldier and went to it without a word of protest or complaint. Once he received an appointment which seemed a hard one. A number of the people of the church which he had served the previous year insisted that he consent to a movement to have the appointment cancelled and have him left where he was. He said, "I have my appointment and all the men and women in Arkansas could not persuade me to change it. I will go where I was sent."

He had great influence in molding the spirit and character of the Little Rock Conference. He came into the Conference when it was only five years old, and at the time of his death he had been a member of the body longer than any other living man except one. He was not as conspicuous as were a few other men of shining gifts, but while he was never noisy or spectacular in what he said and did, he was alert and alive, and the full current of his soul was directed to every problem and opportunity that affected the life of the church. He saw the prime importance of the Christian colleges and of the Christian press. Especially while he was presiding elder he gave much attention to these two resources of the church, intelligence and spiritual culture. Largely as a result of his influence, the Little Rock Conference is a working conference and a believer in and a supporter of Christian education and Christian literature.

During his superannuation Brother McKinnon lived at San Antonio and San Marcus, Texas, with his children. It was a real privation for him to be far from those with whom he had done his life's work, and any message from his Conference or his brethren gave him joy. His mind was active, he kept informed on the work of the church, and always put his influence where it would count for righteousness.

He suffered much during the last two weeks, but on Saturday morning at 2 o'clock, December 13, he quietly went to sleep. Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church at San Marcus, and accompanied by his daughter, Henry, his body was carried to Mineral Springs, Ark., where his wife is buried. At sunset, Monday, December 15, his 84th birthday, we laid his body to rest. Burial services were conducted by Bro. J. B. Sims, the local pastor, and the writer of this memoir.

To the church, his conference, his friends and his family, he has left a heritage that is rather to be chosen than great riches.

—C. J. GREENE.

REV. H. H. WATSON

Harvey H. Watson was born in Grant county, Arkansas, July 4, 1849 and died in Benton, Saline county, Arkansas, February, 1920. Between these dates much of the history of Arkansas Methodism was made and he had no small part in its making. He was married three times—his third wife now living in Texarkana, Arkansas. He was the father of nine children; two of whom had passed away before his death. His children are leaders in church and community life in their respective homes.

H. H. Watson was reared in a religious home, hence deeply and truly religious from early childhood. At the age of eighteen he was moved to dedicate his life to the ministry, from which date a life of usefulness characterized him. With the exception of three years spent in the North Arkansas Conference, his whole ministry was in Little Rock Conference.

He served circuits, stations and Districts with great success, leading many men and women to Christ.

His education was completed in the Southern University of Alabama. His last charge was the Benton Circuit, Little Rock District, and the writer was his Presiding Elder. He could not appreciate the fact he was decrepid and endeavored to do the work faithfully as he had always done, but his body was not strong enough.

He was Presiding Elder of the Little Rock District, in which the writer was stationed in his early ministry, hence the few months spent together were delightful and his ripe experience was helpful.

Harvey Watson was strong as a citizen, a friend, a husband, a Christian. May we who knew and trusted and loved him cherish the memory of his beautiful and holy life, and meet him at last in Heaven.
